

7-7-2018

NEH: Preserving your family's treasures, Toppinish

Central Washington University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cwu.edu/libraryevents>

Part of the Library and Information Science Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Central Washington University, "NEH: Preserving your family's treasures, Toppinish" (2018). Brooks Library Events. 108.

<https://digitalcommons.cwu.edu/libraryevents/108>

This Poster is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives and Special Collections at ScholarWorks@CWU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Brooks Library Events by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@CWU. For more information, please contact scholarworks@cwu.edu.

Eager to learn how to preserve your family's irreplaceable papers and photographs?

Wish to learn about scanning and digitization?

Interested in learning how your family's history aligns with the community cultural heritage?

Yakama Nation Library Presents:
Preserving Your Family's Treasures
Community Workshop

Saturday, July 7

9am-Noon

100 Spilyay Loop, Toppenish, WA 98948

Join us for this free community workshop hosted by the CWU Archives and Special Collections! Bring up to 10 papers and photos to have scanned. Each attendee will be given a preservation kit as well as a flash drive of their scanned items. With written consent, copies of scans may be given to the CWU Archives and Special Collections to preserve in their repository as part of local history.

Event is free but an RSVP by July 3 is required. Email archive@cwu.edu to reserve your place.

Questions?

Email or call 509-963-1717

"This community workshop has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: Common Heritage. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this workshop do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities."